PRESS RELEASE

02/18/2010 – Seneca County Sheriff's Deputies investigated a one car personal injury motor vehicle accident on Auburn Road just north of the Village of Seneca Falls. A vehicle being driven by Carolyn Fox, age 69, of Seneca Falls was traveling Northbound when the driver lost control of the vehicle and struck a utility pole. The cause of the accident was determined to be ice and snow on the surface of the roadway. Fox was trapped within the vehicle and was extricated by Deputies, along with Seneca Falls and Red Jacket Fire Department and North Seneca Ambulance. Seneca Falls Police Department assisted at the scene. Fox was transported to Geneva General Hospital for her injuries.
